摘要

Location: West Switzerland, #LI-Hybrid

Purpose of the role:

As Product & Solutions Partner Rheumatology, you have the overall responsibility for developing long-term business relationships with our customers in the Western region of Switzerland.

This position is part of the Immunology & Neuroscience Therapeutic Area Team and reports directly into the Commercial Lead Immunology.

About the Role

Key Responsibilities / Major accountabilities:

You drive sales by understanding in depth the needs and requirements of the designated customers for whom you develop and implement long lasting client focused solutions. You have a strong entrepreneurial mindset to achieve faster access and better patients ' outcomes.

Your responsibilities include, but are not limited to:

- Customer engagement: Take full accountability and ownership for managing assigned customers by building trusted, long-term relationships with HCPs and key stakeholders. Understand their needs, preferences, and decision-making processes to ensure tailored interactions and exceptional customer experience.
- Sales Targets: Achieve sales targets with effective strategies, adapt to market and customer dynamics, and maintain accurate and timely records of activities and interactions.
- Strategic planning: Implement engagement strategies considering territory specificities, sales targets, and competitive landscape.
- Business growth: Aim for business development by identifying new opportunities (e.g., new targeted HCPs) and gaining insights into local industry trends and networks, supported by strong analytical capabilities.
- Scientific acumen: Deeply understand Novartis products to translate clinical trial data into clear messages. Strong scientific foundation is crucial to effectively communicate with healthcare organisations and build credibility.
- Healthcare Ecosystem Knowledge: Understand the local and national healthcare ecosystem, identify trends, opportunities and threats.
- Industry Engagement: Organize and participate in congresses, seminars and workshops to build relationships with customers and prospects.
- Omni-channel: Draw insights from data to leverage all available channels and orchestrate them to optimize Customer Experience
- Effective Collaboration: Coach peers by sharing best practices and insights gained from various sources, including collaborations with marketing teams, fostering continuous improvement and growth.

Disclaimer*: Some restrictions on flexible working options may apply and will be discussed during interview if applicable

What you ' ll bring to the role:

- A university degree in Health Science, Medicine, or Economics, or validated equivalent through professional experience
- Fluent in both French and English at a professional level
- 3+ years of professional background in pharmaceutical sales, focusing on the ethical promotion of products to specialist physicians.
- In-depth knowledge of Swiss customer/ marketplace and key dynamics
- A network with the target customer group, understanding of key competitors and their strategies in Therapeutic Areas, along with specific product knowledge, is desirable.
