Are you ready to shape the future of medicine? As an Early Launches Field Lead at Novartis, you'll be at the forefront of transforming patient care by engaging with key stakeholders, identifying critical insights, and driving strategic scientific partnerships. Your work will directly influence product strategy, evidence generation, and patient access initiatives—making a real difference in people's lives. Join us to co-create innovative solutions that improve outcomes and redefine what's possible in healthcare.

About the Role

Key Responsibilities

- Act as a strategic partner to shape medical strategy and integrated product plans.
- Leverage therapeutic expertise to support field teams with scientific and clinical insights.
- Identify data gaps and opportunities to improve patient access through evidence generation.
- Map and engage external stakeholders aligned with medical strategy and field collaboration.
- Develop personalized, flexible engagement strategies using tailored content and channels.
- Expand stakeholder engagement beyond healthcare professionals through innovative partnerships.
- Deliver timely, relevant scientific evidence to support informed decision-making.
- Respond to unsolicited stakeholder inquiries with accurate, compliant medical information.
- Lead impactful scientific events and adopt digital tools for broader engagement.
- Manage compliance, reporting, and continuous professional development responsibilities.

Essential Requirements

- Advanced degree in health or life sciences; doctoral degree (PharmD, PhD, MD) preferred
- Fluent in both English and the local language, with excellent written and verbal communication
- Minimum 2-3 years of experience in a medical function within a therapeutic area
- Strong understanding of healthcare systems, research procedures, and pharmaceutical guidelines
- Proven ability to build collaborative relationships with credibility and purpose
- Demonstrated growth mindset and ability to self-direct learning
- Skilled in digital tools for stakeholder engagement and insights gathering
- Strong analytical, strategic thinking, and problem-solving capabilities

Desirable Requirements

- Experience in market access or working closely with access and value teams
