摘要

Step into a pivotal leadership role where your expertise will shape the future of clinical research in Argentina. As the SSO Country Head (OPC), you ' ll drive the strategic execution of Phase I-IV clinical trials, ensuring high-quality data delivery and regulatory compliance. This is your opportunity to lead a dynamic team, influence global development strategies, and make a meaningful impact on patient outcomes. At Novartis, your leadership will not only advance science—it will help reimagine medicine.

About the Role

Key Responsibilities

- Drive national clinical operations strategy aligned with global and cluster-level objectives.
- Oversee trial feasibility, allocation, and execution across all study phases.
- Ensure timely delivery of high-quality clinical data and regulatory compliance.

- Lead and develop cross-functional teams, including managers and enabling functions.
- Optimize site selection and engagement to enhance trial performance.
- Monitor and manage performance metrics, quality indicators, and CAPAs.
- Collaborate with internal stakeholders to align on portfolio strategy and execution.
- Manage country-level budget, headcount, and productivity targets.
- Foster a culture of compliance, innovation, and continuous improvement.
- Represent Study & Site Operations in strategic discussions with medical and commercial leaders.

Essential Requirements

- Bachelor ' s degree in life sciences; advanced degree in science or business preferred.
- Minimum 10 years of experience in clinical research, including trial planning and execution.
- At least 4 years in a people management role within a clinical or pharmaceutical setting.
- Deep understanding of clinical development, trial monitoring, and regulatory compliance.
- Proven leadership in managing cross-functional teams and complex communications.
- Strong knowledge of international standards (GCP/ICH) and local health authority regulations.
- Excellent organizational, interpersonal, and strategic thinking skills.
- Fluent in written and spoken English.

Desirable Requirements

- Experience working in a global matrix organization within the pharmaceutical industry.
- Demonstrated success in driving innovation and continuous improvement in clinical operations.
