Lead with impact and shape the future of data-driven innovation at Novartis! As an Associate Director in DDIT US&I Solution Delivery Analytics, you will steer high-profile projects that connect global teams and deliver transformative technology solutions at scale. Your leadership will set the standard for data engineering excellence, security, and compliance while fostering collaboration across regions. This is your chance to influence strategy, champion agile practices, and empower diverse teams to create solutions that drive meaningful business outcomes and improve lives worldwide.

About the Role

Key Responsibilities

- Drive successful delivery of Data Enablement projects aligned with Novartis standards and timelines.
- Ensure strict adherence to project governance, budget policies, and compliance frameworks.
- Champion high-quality data engineering practices across global teams and initiatives.
- Implement robust security and compliance measures in all solution delivery activities.
- Foster adoption of Agile, Productization, and DevOps practices to accelerate innovation.
- Collaborate with senior stakeholders to influence strategy and deliver impactful technology solutions.
- Monitor KPIs and ensure measurable business impact through scalable technology deployments.

Essential Requirements

- Proven experience delivering complex data projects in a global, matrixed organization.
- Strong ability to build trust-based relationships with senior stakeholders across regions.
- Expertise in project management, budget control, and risk mitigation.
- Demonstrated leadership in managing diverse teams and driving operational excellence.
- Solid technical knowledge of data design and engineering principles.
- Exceptional problem-solving skills combined with strategic business acumen.

Desirable Requirements

- Hands-on experience in fast-paced Agile software development environments.
- Professional certifications in data or technology domains and a consulting-oriented mindset.

Commitment to Diversity and Inclusion:

Novartis is committed to building an outstanding, inclusive work environment and diverse teams' representative of the patients and communities we serve.
