Responsibilities include:

- Develop, maintain and execute comprehensive medical education plans for assigned therapeutic areas.
- Serve as NOGE participant on cross-functional medical teams to align and focus medical education plans with medical strategies.
- Manage budget for assigned therapeutic area(s) ensuring that funding is allocated within budget and according to medical education plans.
- Review and render timely grant dispositions related to assigned therapeutic area(s) via Novartis Grants Central Station.
- Provide oversight for supported continuing medical education initiatives related to assigned therapeutic areas.
- Participate in cross functional teams to ensure department and organization comply with all internal and external requirements (i.e., Sunshine, CIA, ACCME, Novartis policy).
- Ensure 100% compliance with NOGE SOPs, regulatory, industry, and OIG guidelines.
- Track measurable outcomes; ensure grant reconciliations are received and reviewed as per policy.
- Receive, review and render timely dispositions of Medical Sponsorship requests.
- Prepare and present grants to the Grants Review Committee (GRC).
- Demonstrate a working scientific knowledge related to assigned therapeutic area(s).
- Stay abreast of emerging compliance, regulatory, and CME trends.
- Review and execute medical sponsorships in collaboration with Medical Directors
- Synthesize tailor educational outcomes that address Novartis' medical objectives on an ongoing basis while also provide key insights on HCP learner preferences, competitor insights, and aggregate collation of trends in education across the assigned disease areas of interest

Position Requirements:

- BS in scientific discipline required, advanced degree preferred
- Minimum of 3 to 5 years of experience in pharmaceutical industry role
- Understanding of PhRMA, OIG, and ACCME guidelines and policies as well as other regulatory, legal, ethics/compliance guidelines/regulations
