摘要

#LI-Hybrid
Location: Hyderabad, India

Relocation Support: This role is based in Hyderabad, India. Novartis is unable to offer relocation support: please only apply if accessible.

In this role, you ' ll help shape how GMA Study Management plans, allocates, and optimizes its resources across a complex global portfolio. You ' ll bring structure, insight, and forward-looking thinking to how we forecast demand, model capacity, and guide budget decisions. By connecting data, processes, and people, you ' ll enable stronger scenario planning, clearer prioritization, and smarter use of internal and external capabilities. Your work will influence senior decision-making and strengthen quality, compliance, and operational excellence across the function—making a meaningful impact on how we deliver for patients worldwide.

About the Role

Key Responsibilities

- Lead portfolio-level forecasting and capacity planning frameworks.
- Drive governance cycles for demand, capacity, and budget outlooks.
- Convert strategic objectives into clear capacity envelopes and priorities.
- Enhance forecasting standards, methodologies, and quality controls.
- Partner with Digital and Analytics teams to advance automation and insights.
- Facilitate cross-functional forums to align plans, risks, and mitigation actions.
- Consolidate and analyze portfolio budgets, forecasts, and key drivers.
- Strengthen quality, compliance, and inspection readiness across processes.
- Maintain high-quality Book of Work data and ensure data integrity.
- Mentor teams, foster capability building, and strengthen community of practice.

Essential Requirements

- Bachelor's or Master's degree, preferably in Life Sciences.
- Extensive experience in capacity planning or resource management within the clinical research environment.
- Strong understanding of clinical development activities and global medical affairs functions.
- Advanced knowledge of relevant regulations, Good Clinical Practice, and clinical trial design principles.
- Demonstrated ability to drive operational improvements and resolve complex issues.
- Strong interpersonal, problem solving, negotiation, and conflict resolution skills with experience in global teams.
