摘要

As Disease Awareness Specialist, you will bridge medical, market, and stakeholder needs by education and ecosystem development in alignment with local regulations and company policies. The Disease Awareness Specialist serves as a subject-matter liaison across medical affairs, market access, commercial, patient engagement, and external stakeholders to improve patient outcomes while maintaining strict compliance and non-promotional standards. This role provides opportunity to transition to Therapy Area Partner.

About the Role

Disease Awareness Specialist

Location: Jeddah

#LI-Onsite

Major Accountabilities:

- Develop and execute the Renal disease area plan aligned with regional medical strategy.
- Map care pathways and identify gaps (diagnosis delays, referral flows, treatment access, patient education).
- Monitor epidemiology, guideline updates, and local practice patterns to inform strategic priorities.
- Build trusted, compliant relationships with Nephrologists , clinical pharmacists, payors, and health authorities.
- Facilitate scientific exchange on renal disease burden, evidence, and best practices (following local codes and company SOPs).
- Support expert panels, advisory boards, and working groups to address unmet needs.
- Plan and deliver compliant medical education activities on Renal recognition, assessment, and guideline-aligned management for HCPs, pharmacists, payors and health authorities. Support developing materials that are balanced, evidence-based, and approved through medical review.
- Support patient awareness campaigns focusing on disease understanding and disease burden.
- Partner with market access to articulate renal disease burden and health economic considerations within local frameworks. Engage on formulary and pathway discussions to improve equitable access, in coordination with cross-functional stakeholders.

Requirements:

- Bachelor ' s degree in Pharmacy (PharmD preferred); Clinical Pharmacy background is an advantage.
- Minimum 1 year experience in a pharma specialty environment (renal or rare disease experience preferred).
- Strong understanding of the pharmaceutical industry and its evolving environment.
- Proven ability to build effective relationships with KOLs and healthcare stakeholders; strong collaboration and stakeholder management skills.
- Scientific literacy, strategic thinking, and strong problem-solving skills, with a demonstrated drive for results.

Languages:

- Arabic & Fluency in English is a must.
