This is your opportunity to make a tangible impact while working in an environment that values curiosity, integrity and bold thinking.

About the Role

Key Responsibilities:

- Identify and map external stakeholders across therapeutic areas to strengthen scientific engagement beyond healthcare professionals.
- Build personalized, multi-channel engagement plans tailored to evolving stakeholder needs and expectations.
- Gather, interpret and share meaningful medical insights to guide strategic decision making.
- Support clinical development projects by identifying evidence gaps and real-world data opportunities.
- Drive disease awareness by delivering timely, relevant scientific evidence to appropriate stakeholders.
- Champion omnichannel and digital approaches to enhance medical engagement impact.
- Translate insights into actionable contributions for Patient Journey work, evidence planning and product strategy.
- Facilitate medical training for cross-functional teams as backup to the Medical Advisor.

Essential Requirements:

- Advanced degree in medical, pharmaceutical, biological or life sciences (MD, MSc, PhD or Postdoctoral studies).
- Proficiency in Romanian and English, both spoken and written.
- Minimum six months' experience within a healthcare institution, health authority, healthcare non-governmental organization or pharmaceutical company.
- Strong ability to communicate scientific information clearly and confidently.
- Proven capability to build and maintain effective stakeholder relationships.
- Ability to interpret scientific data and translate insights into actionable recommendations.
- Comfortable working with digital tools and omnichannel engagement approaches.
- Strong organizational skills to manage reporting, compliance and administrative responsibilities.

Desirable Requirements:

- Prior experience as a Medical Science Liaison in Cardiology medicine
- Strong knowledge of the Romanian healthcare ecosystem and established relationships with external stakeholders and key opinion leaders.

Commitment to Diversity:

We are committed to building an outstanding, inclusive work environment and diverse teams representative of the patients and communities we serve.
