The Associate Director, Product & Disease Training leads the assessment, strategy, budgeting, and delivery of in market and launch training for the Spinal Muscular Atrophy portfolio within the Customer Engagement organization. This role brings cross functional voices together - partnering closely with Customer Engagement, Marketing, Operations, Patient Services, and other key stakeholders - to ensure training is thoughtfully designed, aligned, and impactful. With a strong focus on collaboration and clarity, this individual provides strategic oversight to ensure training curricula effectively support teams and the patients they serve.

About the Role

Key Responsibilities:

- Lead the development and execution of a comprehensive product and disease training strategy, fully aligned with marketing positioning, brand priorities, and customer engagement goals.
- Partner closely with Customer Engagement, Marketing, and other customer facing teams to capture insights and integrate them into training plans and curriculum design.
- Collaborate with the Customer Engagement (CE) Skills Training team to refine and deliver new hire and ongoing training experiences that support readiness and long term success.
- Serve as an active member of product functional leadership teams, providing strategic input and training perspective across the organization.
- Lead the design and evolution of product training curricula by working cross functionally with internal partners and external vendors, ensuring content reflects market dynamics and learner needs.
- Conduct ongoing needs assessments using customer feedback, field insights, and subject matter expertise to continuously inform and strengthen training strategy.
- Ensure all training materials meet compliance, legal, and regulatory requirements and receive appropriate internal approvals.
- Develop and deliver national and district meeting content in partnership with brand teams to reinforce strategy, capability, and confidence.
- Drive sustainability and impact by defining metrics, tracking KPIs, and leveraging pre and post training insights in collaboration with Technology and Operations partners.

- Partner with Customer Engagement (CE) Operations to ensure customer facing associates complete required product certifications and remain current on training expectations.

Essential Requirements:

- Bachelor ' s degree required from 4-year college or university.
- 6+ years of experience in sales training, with a strong track record of designing and delivering impactful learning experiences.
- 2+ years ' sales experience in pharmaceutical, biotech, healthcare, or similarly structured industries with large, geographically dispersed teams. We also welcome candidates from other complex environments such as medical devices, diagnostics, life sciences services, insurance, consumer health, technology, or B2B sectors, especially where strong field leadership and customer engagement are central to success.
- Recent experience applying AI enabled or innovative instructional design approaches to enhance learning effectiveness and engagement.
- Strong understanding of brand strategy and execution, paired with solid clinical and therapeutic knowledge.
- Demonstrated sales acumen and business mindset, with the ability to connect training outcomes to real world performance and results.
- Excellent communication, facilitation, problem solving, and influencing skills, with the ability to synthesize complex information into clear recommendations.
- Proven ability to lead through collaboration - building trust, influencing without authority, and thriving in large, cross functional teams.

Desirable Requirements:

- An advanced degree or continued learning that adds depth to scientific, clinical, or strategic thinking.
- Experience supporting launch readiness or major business moments through education and enablement.

Novartis Compensation Summary:

The salary for this position is expected to range between $152,600.00 and $283,400.00 per year.

The final salary offered is determined based on factors like, but not limited to, relevant skills and experience, and upon joining Novartis will be reviewed periodically. Novartis may change the published salary range based on company and market factors.

Your compensation will include a performance-based cash incentive and, depending on the level of the role, eligibility to be considered for annual equity awards.
