#LI-onsite

The ideal location for this role is East Hanover, NJ site but a distant working arrangement may be possible in certain states. Distant workers are responsible for the cost of home office expenses and periodic travel/lodging to East Hanover, NJ site, as determined necessary by hiring manager.

Novartis is unable to offer relocation support for this role. Please only apply if this location is accessible for you.

Company will not sponsor visas for this position.

As Associate Director, Medical Advisor supporting Novartis' US promotional review, you will provide high-quality, timely review of materials across divisions—ensuring each piece is scientifically accurate, current, and properly substantiated and referenced. You'll apply sound medical judgment to ensure material is scientifically rigorous and presented with necessary context to allow appropriate interpretation of data and ensure material is scientifically understandable for intended US customer audience.

About the Role

Key Responsibilities:

- Provide high-quality medical review of promotional (and non-promotional materials as needed); ensure materials are scientifically accurate, current, and properly substantiated and referenced; ensure materials are scientifically rigorous and presented with necessary context to allow appropriate interpretation of data and supported by the broader US clinical landscape/practice.
- Collaborate with cross-functional teams(field medical, publications, scientific communications, medical directors, HEOR, regulatory, legal, HCP engagement team) to ensure tactics are aligned with the strategies identified for the Innovative Medicines portfolio (e.g., medical strategy teams [MSTs] and launch management teams [LMTs]).
- Consistently demonstrate agility and flexibility by being readily available to collaborate with US brand, MLR team, and other key cross-functional stakeholders during normal US business hours in order to address any pressing needs for key deadlines or priorities.
- Readily available to attend and present at MAP meetings.
- Consistently collaborate and align with TA medical director on key marketing materials
- Identify emerging medical trends, marketplace issues (e.g., Medical Inquiry Trends, Business Intelligence) and quality assurance issues and share with appropriate Novartis personnel.
- Collaborate across US Medical Affairs, Marketing, Sales functions, in order to ensure alignment of clinical information strategy with business needs.
- Leverages AI tools to streamline tasks, generate content, and support decision-making, demonstrating practical fluency in prompting, interpreting, and refining AI outputs to improve work quality and efficiency.

Essential Requirements:

- PharmD, healthcare-related PhD, or MD is required with significant industry or related medical information/medical review experience preferred. Post-graduate specialty training is desirable.
- Pharmaceutical Industry Experience preferred; At least 3 years (manager level) or at least 5-7 years (AD) of experience in US promotional review (DTC/consumer marketing, market access, HCP materials) in addition to extensive experience in biostatistics, CFL guidance, OPDP/FDA regulations regarding clinical data and medical promotion, medical writing, medical information/drug information, and/or relevant clinical experience.
- Strong knowledge of medical terminology, biostatistics, clinical trial design, pathophysiology, pharmacology, pharmacotherapeutics, and laboratory diagnostic tests.
- Proven literature analysis and evaluation skills. Strong understanding of English language needed to help assess nuances of claims.
- Excellent communication skills with strong business acumen needed to work with various challenging stakeholders to be solution oriented.
- Strong understanding of regulatory and clinical landscape to provide sound risk assessment for material review.
- Proficient in Microsoft Word, PowerPoint, Excel, and technologically savvy.

Desirable Requirements:

- Advanced degree or training in particular relevant therapeutic area (Neuroscience) is desirable.
- Knowledge of drug information processes and adverse event reporting regulations is strongly preferred

Novartis Compensation Summary:

The salary for this position is expected to range between $145,600 and $270,400 per year.

The final salary offered is determined based on factors like, but not limited to, relevant skills and experience, and upon joining Novartis will be reviewed periodically. Novartis may change the published salary range based on company and market factors.

Your compensation will include a performance-based cash incentive and, depending on the level of the role, eligibility to be considered for annual equity awards.

US-based eligible employees will receive a comprehensive benefits package that includes health, life and disability benefits, a 401(k) with company contribution and match, and a variety of other benefits. In addition, employees are eligible for a generous time off package including vacation, personal days, holidays and other leaves.
