Office Location: London (The Westworks), United Kingdom

We are seeking a Global Labelling Director (Content Team Lead) to provide leadership and strategic direction for global labelling activities across a portfolio of products and projects.

This role is responsible for delivering high quality, consistent, and compliant labelling content aligned with overall product strategy, supporting the development and lifecycle of medicines globally.

About the Role

Key Responsibilities

- Lead, develop and support a team of labelling professionals, fostering an inclusive and high performing environment.
- Define and deliver global labelling strategies aligned with target product profiles and overall asset plans.
- Oversee the development and maintenance of core and major market labelling documents.
- Provide guidance on interactions with regulatory authorities, including labelling discussions where applicable.
- Collaborate with cross functional partners to ensure alignment on labelling strategy and execution.
- Ensure labelling content reflects current regulatory requirements, scientific evidence, and competitive insights.
- Support the development of evidence packages and regulatory documentation.
- Drive continuous improvement in labelling processes, tools, and ways of working.

Essential Requirements

- Experience in global labelling and/or regulatory affairs within the pharmaceutical or life sciences industry.
- Demonstrated ability to develop and deliver labelling strategies across product development and lifecycle stages.
- Strong understanding of clinical data, safety information, and regulatory requirements, with the ability to translate these into clear labelling content.
- Knowledge of global labelling frameworks and expectations across major markets.
- Experience working in cross functional, matrix environments with multiple stakeholders.
- Proven people management experience, including leading, developing and supporting individuals or teams in a professional setting.
- Strong communication skills, with the ability to present complex information clearly and influence decision making.
- Ability to manage priorities effectively and deliver high quality outcomes within timelines.
