Job ID
REQ-10079206

6月 16, 2026

Japan

摘要

Accountable for all aspects of the Development Unit (DU) portfolio and development strategy in Japan, maximizing patient impact and Novartis value through development excellence.

About the Role

- 1) Providing overall leadership for the entire DU in Japan and, in collaboration with relevant line functions, leading development strategy from pre PoC through registration to deliver innovative medicines to patients.
- 2) Leading the formulation of DU strategies in partnership with Commercial, Research, Strategy & Growth, and Medical to maximize pipeline value in both the short and long term, contributing to company-wide growth.
- 3) Representing the therapeutic area at key internal and external stakeholder meetings, including global and domestic leadership meetings and governance boards, contributing to overall company strategy and enhanced portfolio value.

4) Incorporating external industry trends and competitor insights to enable well informed decision making.

5) Effectively managing risks at key project milestones while ensuring transparency of risks, opportunities, and trade offs.

6) Responsible for talent development, deployment, and talent management within Japan Program Head (JPH).

7) Ensure overall compliance with GxP and applicable laws and regulations across the development portfolio, with accountability for timely and appropriate risk identification, escalation, and response, and for driving continuous improvement through effective issue management.

8) Quality accountability: Ensure adequate reporting of adverse events / technical complaint / compliance issue in accordance with company procedures and 100% timely delivery of all training requirements including compliance
