摘要

The Sales Representative is responsible for executing in-field commercial strategy for assigned brands within a defined territory. The role focuses on high-quality customer engagement, effective execution of brand plans, demand generation, and delivery of sales objectives in line with Novartis values, compliance standards, and customer-centric principles.

About the Role

#LI-Remote

Internal job title: Sales Representative

Location: Quito, Ecuador

This role is based in Quito, Ecuador. Novartis is unable to offer relocation support for this role: please only apply if this location is accessible for you.

Key responsibilities

- Execute in-field commercial strategy for assigned brands, ensuring alignment with Therapeutic Area priorities and business objectives.
- Deliver high-quality, compliant customer engagement through tailored messaging and evidence-based discussions with healthcare professionals.
- Build, develop, and consolidate strategic relationships with key HCPs (e.g., oncologists/hematologists) and stakeholders in assigned accounts to generate long-term value for patients and the health system.
- Identify, segment, and prioritize high-potential customers using data and KPIs to drive decisions and strengthen demand and prescription.
- Identify and address ecosystem barriers impacting patient access; propose and coordinate practical solutions with internal partners and key institutions (public/private) to improve access pathways.
- Execute personalized omnichannel customer journeys using approved tools and platforms, leveraging digital and AI-enabled tools where appropriate.
- Collect, analyze, and share field insights on customer needs, market dynamics, and access challenges to inform cross-functional action plans.
- Collaborate cross-functionally with MSL, Access, KAM/SAM, Marketing, and Field Leadership to ensure aligned execution and compliant delivery.
- Ensure full compliance with company policies, ethical standards, and regulatory requirements in all activities.

Essential Requirements

- University degree in life sciences, business, or related field.
- Strong knowledge of the local healthcare ecosystem (key accounts, HCP networks, and access processes) in the assigned territory, with the ability to identify and address system barriers strategically.
- Demonstrated customer engagement and relationship-building capability with specialist HCPs (oncology/hematology preferred).
- Strong analytical mindset: ability to interpret data/KPIs, segment customers, and translate insights into action.
- Ability to work independently in the field while collaborating effectively in cross-functional teams.

- High integrity and a strong compliance mindset, with disciplined execution aligned to Novartis values.
- Strength in the following capabilities: Strategic Thinking; Integrity, Ethics & Compliance; Unbossed Collaboration & Empowerment.
- Fluency in Spanish; English is a plus.

Desirable Requirements

- Prior experience in oncology/hematology and/or access-focused account work within an innovative pharma or healthcare environment.
- Experience executing omnichannel engagement and using digital tools to enhance field performance.
