摘要

Lead category initiatives across defined global, regional, or country-level categories, developing and executing sourcing strategies, managing demand and specifications, and driving supplier performance, innovation, and value delivery in alignment with broader category objectives.

About the Role

Major Accountabilities

- Develop and execute sub-category procurement strategy by translating global/category strategies into actionable regional, country, or local sourcing plans.
- Lead sourcing initiatives and deliver savings targets for the assigned sub-category through effective procurement planning and execution.

- Support category strategy development through supplier segmentation, identification of key supplier relationships, and business planning activities.
- Manage strategic supplier relationships and ensure supplier performance is monitored through defined KPIs, addressing risks and issues promptly.
- Oversee purchasing decisions at the country level, including supplier selection, timing, and commercial terms where applicable.
- Collect and analyze supplier performance data from divisions, countries, sites, and stakeholders, and deliver Procurement Balanced Scorecard metrics.
- Create, negotiate, review, and implement contracts for the sub-category, ensuring consistent communication and application of contractual agreements.
- Manage budgets, resources, and team performance, including talent development, while ensuring compliance with reporting requirements for product-related incidents.

Minimum Requirements

- 10+ Years of procurement experience.
- Functional breadth with strong procurement and category management expertise.
- Experience in critical negotiations and supplier contract management.
- Industry and business exposure within complex, multinational environments.
- Cross-cultural experience working with global and regional stakeholders.
- Project management skills with the ability to manage multiple sourcing initiatives simultaneously.
- Operations management and execution experience to drive procurement effectiveness and delivery.
- Strong communication and stakeholder management skills to influence internal and external partners.
- Financial, resource management, customer needs analysis, and negotiation capabilities to support value delivery and business objectives.
