摘要

Manage Headcount, Demand Planning/ Supply and W&D functions to achieve the agreed upon targets. Optimize Demand & Supply functions by ensuring forecast accuracy and proactively managing inventory levels in order to maintain an ideal supply line to feed the market.

About the Role

Major accountabilities:

- Lead the Sales & Business Planning (S&BP) process, ensuring alignment with global planning cycles and maintaining accurate demand forecasts to prevent stock shortages.
- Drive supply chain performance by achieving key operational KPIs related to customer service, inventory, forecast accuracy, and overall business performance.

- Collaborate closely with commercial teams, regional/global supply chain organizations, and external stakeholders to support business objectives and sales growth.
- Manage inventory and product availability across the portfolio, ensuring optimal stock levels, timely replenishment, and effective lifecycle management.
- Ensure successful execution of product launches, institutional orders, and customer deliveries through proactive planning and coordination.
- Oversee warehousing, distribution, and logistics operations, ensuring compliance with HSE standards, good warehousing practices, and service level commitments.
- Manage third-party logistics providers through regular performance reviews, KPI monitoring, and implementation of corrective and continuous improvement actions.
- Ensure full compliance with regulatory, quality, corporate governance, code of conduct, and company SOP requirements across all supply chain activities.
- Lead operational excellence initiatives, including productivity improvements, cost optimization, capacity enhancement, LEAN programs, and regional/global supply chain projects.
- Foster a high-performance and people-focused culture by supporting talent development, organizational initiatives, employee engagement, and health and safety within the supply chain team.

Essential requirements:

- University degree in Supply Chain Management / Science / Economics / Finance / Industrial Engineering or related field.
- 8-10 years of senior manager / strategic planning experience in pharmaceutical sales & distribution.
- Advanced stakeholder management skills.
- Strong sense of urgency and prioritization.
- Fluent in English and local language.
