摘要

We ' re part of the Social Impact & Sustainability team of dedicated and passionate people united by a drive to improve health outcomes. The Director, SI&S Inclusive Access Strategy & Market Integration leads the expansion of Inclusive Health Accelerators across priority markets to improve health outcomes for underreached populations. The role partners with local and cross-functional teams to identify barriers, integrate solutions into business planning, and scale data-driven approaches, partnerships, and capabilities that create sustainable patient and business impact

About the Role

Location: Basel, Switzerland #hybrid.

Key Responsibilities:

- Lead the strategy and implementation roadmap to expand the Inclusive Health Accelerator model across Japan, Germany, China, and future priority markets.
- Drive market prioritization, readiness assessment, sequencing, governance, decision rights, and implementation planning.
- Partner with local and cross-functional teams to identify priority therapeutic areas, underreached populations, patient journey barriers, root causes, and intervention opportunities.
- Define and operationalize the IHA methodology, diagnostics, reusable tools, partnership models, implementation plans, and success measures.
- Embed inclusive access priorities and solutions into country business, brand, launch, therapeutic area, and market planning.
- Identify and develop community-based partnerships that strengthen trust, address access barriers, and improve outcomes.
- Establish KPIs, dashboards, and learning systems to monitor progress, inform decisions, demonstrate impact, and enable scale across markets.
- Lead complex cross-functional workstreams across stakeholders, functions, and geographies, translating data, community insights, and market context into practical recommendations.

Essential Criteria

- Bachelor's degree in Public Health, Healthcare Administration, Business, Health Policy, Social Sciences, Life Sciences, or a related field.
- Extensive experience in public health, social impact, community health, pharmaceuticals, health equity, or related fields.
- Experience leading the implementation and expansion of strategic initiatives across markets, including partnering with local country teams to adapt and execute solutions in diverse healthcare environments.
- Demonstrated experience developing and implementing strategies, programs, or initiatives that improve outcomes for underrepresented populations and communities.
- Strong experience leveraging data, evidence, and community insights to identify barriers, inform strategy, measure impact, and drive continuous improvement.
- Proven ability to collaborate across functions and influence stakeholders to translate insights into actionable strategies, implementation plans, and measurable outcomes.

Desirable Criteria

- Advanced degree (e.g., MPH, MBA, MHA, MSc, MD, PhD, or equivalent) in Public Health, Business, Health Policy, Healthcare Administration, Social Sciences, Life Sciences, or a related discipline.
- Experience building and managing multi-stakeholder coalitions, community organizations, healthcare ecosystems, or cross-sector partnerships to improve community health outcomes.
- Experience developing measurement frameworks, learning systems, dashboards, or evidence-generation approaches that support scale and sustainability.
