摘要

As a Sales Representative, Immunology, you will play a key role in shaping our customer experience and driving sales performance within your territory.

You will build trusted, long-term relationships with healthcare professionals (HCPs) and other key stakeholders, developing a deep understanding of their needs, challenges and priorities. By combining customer insights, data and a personalized engagement approach, you will create meaningful interactions that deliver value for customers and patients while driving sustainable business growth.

You will work closely with cross-functional colleagues and always operate in a compliant, ethical and customer-focused manner.

About the Role

Drive Competitive Sales Growth

- Identify and prioritize high-potential customers and stakeholders through effective use of available data and insights.
- Drive sales performance through the skilful orchestration of positive and relevant customer experiences.
- Develop and continuously adapt territory, account and customer engagement plans based on evolving insights and opportunities.
- Focus activities and resources on opportunities that can create meaningful value for customers, patients and the business.

Engage and Build Strong Customer Relationships

- Engage customers through value-based conversations, both in person and virtually, to understand their challenges, decision drivers, pain points and opportunities.
- Build trusted and sustainable relationships with HCPs and other relevant stakeholders.
- Personalize customer engagement journeys based on individual preferences, leveraging relevant content and multiple communication channels.
- Deliver memorable, customer-centric experiences by listening to customer needs and understanding the broader healthcare environment.
- Establish effective working relationships with opinion leaders and medical influencers within the territory.
- Support improvements across the patient journey by helping ensure the right patients receive the right solutions at the right time.

Develop Deep Customer Insights

- Develop a strong understanding of customers, their environment and what matters most to them.
- Proactively gather customer feedback and translate insights into meaningful actions that create additional value.
- Leverage available data sources to dynamically prioritize and adjust territory, account and customer interaction plans.
- Share relevant customer insights with internal stakeholders to support the development of effective content, campaigns and engagement plans.

Deliver Value for Customers and Patients

- Collaborate compliantly with cross-functional teams to identify and implement solutions addressing unmet customer and patient needs.
- Act as a trusted partner by listening, learning and developing relationships in a compliant and ethical way.
- Identify opportunities to create value-added solutions that respond to customer needs and improve the customer experience.

- Work collaboratively across functions to support business objectives and positive patient outcomes.

Act with Integrity and Compliance

- Demonstrate integrity, honesty and transparency in all interactions with customers and colleagues.
- Make ethical decisions, speak up when something does not feel right and consistently demonstrate Novartis Values and Behaviors.
- Operate in accordance with the Novartis Code of Ethics and all relevant policies and procedures.
- Ensure technical complaints, adverse events and special case scenarios related to Novartis products are reported within 24 hours of receipt.
- Manage the distribution of marketing samples where applicable and in accordance with relevant requirements.

Key Performance Indicators

Performance measures will be defined at local level in line with applicable Field Engagement Performance Management guidance.

Benefits & Rewards

At Novartis, we ' re committed to reimagining medicine together - and rewarding the people who make it happen.
