Medical Scientific Liaison-CRM
Location : Taipei

#LI-Hybrid

This role is based in Taipei, Taiwan. Novartis is unable to offer relocation support for this role: please only apply if this location is accessible for you.

As a Medical Science Liaison at Novartis, you will serve as a trusted scientific partner in the field–building peer-to-peer relationships with medical experts, key stakeholders, and members of the scientific community. Leveraging evidence-based, non-promotional materials, you will facilitate meaningful scientific exchange that informs and advances patient care.

From as early as two years before a new product launches, you will play a strategic role in preparing for and supporting product development, launch, and commercialization. By gathering external insights, you will help shape Novartis ’ understanding of the therapeutic landscape. Additionally, you will respond to unsolicited scientific inquiries and provide clinical trial support.

Reporting to the Medical Scientific Liaison Manager, you will collaborate cross-functionally with Medical Affairs, Clinical, Market Access, and other teams–transforming insights into actionable strategies that accelerate access to therapeutic area.
